

Note: This map is created using County data for properties paying into Drain assessments. It is important to note that these districts statutorily (according to Title 85 of the revised code of Washington) are defined by the assessment roll adopted by the district commissioners and not necessarily by geographic boundaries. This map was created from public records and existing map sources not from field surveys. Errors may exist due to incomplete data and or legal descriptions of the property boundaries. Skagit County GIS will review any information brought to our attention and apply map revisions where applicable.
