1. THE GRANTOR(S), FRANK H. DURKSEN, is the owner of the following property, herein referred to as the subservient property:

Attached as "A"

2. THE GRANTEE(S), FRANK H. DURKSEN, is the owner of the following property, hereby referred to as the dominant property:

Attached as "B"

3. The Grantors hereby grant to the Grantees as easement for residential ingress and egress and utilities over the subservient property to serve residential use for residences lawfully situated on the dominate property and to serve subsequent lawful residential or private recreational development or construction on the dominant property. This easement is to the benefit of and appurtenant to the property described above. Said easement is described herein as follows:

over and upon the existing driveway.

4. Grantees shall have the right, at their own expense, to pave and drain the easement hereby granted provided that no improvements to the easement shall touch or interfere with the remaining portion of the subservient property. Nor shall the grantees conduct any activity on the easement that constitutes a nuisance or that interferes with unreasonably with the grantor's use of the remaining portion of the subservient property. This easement is for the period during which the existing driveway is in use. It is not the intention of Grantor to extend this easement to any new use or structure which may interfere. Grantors reserve the right to use the easement for their own proposes provided they do not damage the improvements made by the grantees or do not interfere with the grantees' use of the easement.

5. Said easement shall be for the benefit of the property owned by the Grantees as described above and shall be a burden on the property owned by the Grantors. This easement is superior and paramount to the rights of the parties to any subservient estate created herein, and said easement shall be binding upon the heirs, successors, and assigns of the parties thereto.
