

Envision Skagit Citizen Committee List (9/13/2010)

John C. Cheney	(Mount Vernon)	Architect (retired); former Mount Vernon City Council; current member, Skagit Community Action Agency Board, Skagit County Boundary Review Board, former Skagit Transit board member.
Kerri L. Cook	(Alger area)	North Cascades National Park, facility operations specialist, civil engineering technician; Leadership Skagit graduate 2009. Raised in Marblemount and Concrete, Concrete high school valedictorian 1998.
Cory Ertel	(Anacortes)	Government affairs for Skagit/Island Counties Builders Association (SICBA); Leadership Skagit 2010 graduate. Experience with consensus groups through employment with King County Council and Washington State Senate. Young father.
Peggy Flynn	(Anacortes)	Project management, business and organizational consultant. Graduate of UW Executive MBA program; 2004 Leadership Skagit graduate and curriculum committee member and team coach; current or past board member with Skagitonians to Preserve Farmland, United Way of Skagit County, other orgs.
James A. Meyer	(Rockport)	Manager of Cascadian Farm "home farm" in Rockport. On board of Skagit Community Action Agency, Hamilton Public Development Authority, Festival of Family Farms. Previously on board of Marblemount Chamber of Commerce and Forest Concerns of the Upper Skagit.
Kim D. Mower	(Hamilton area)	Dairy farmer with keen interest in registered Brown Swiss cows. Member and past president of Skagit County Agricultural Advisory Board. Active in Dairy 4-H, Immaculate Conception Regional School, Boy Scouts of America.
Nicole Pomerleau	(East of Sedro Woolley)	Newly graduated Registered Nurse, soon to be working in hospital setting. Young parent and owner of small family farm.
Grace Popoff	(Concrete area)	Active with Friends of the Upper Skagit Library and library board; started Concrete area "conversation café" to encourage civil dialogue about local issues. Retired special-needs program developer. Applied because feels it's important that upper valley be represented.
Gustavo Ramos, Jr.	(Mount Vernon)	Executive director, Housing Authority of Skagit County; has held similar positions in Nevada and California. Vice president elect of Mount Vernon Kiwanis, member of the Mount Vernon Downtown Merchants Association representing Housing Authority, and bilingual radio announcer on KSVR-FM 91.7.
Doris Robbins	(Edison)	Artist; grant-writer for Edison wastewater treatment project; bookkeeper for husband's residential contracting company; very active in Samish watershed activities.
Tim Rosenhan	(Samish Island)	Architect (retired); now runs business importing high-end inflatable kayaks sold at REI and elsewhere. Conducted master planning for NAS Whidbey and numerous other airports as director of Reid Middleton's airport division in Snohomish County. Graduated from Dartmouth and served as Marine Corps pilot.
Ryan D. Sakuma	(Burlington)	Farmer, family business owner; board member with Skagit Conservation District, Burlington Chamber of Commerce, Economic Development Association of Skagit County.
Gary Thor	(Mount Vernon)	General manager and part owner of Commercial Cold Storage, a seafood processing and cold storage facility in Mount Vernon.
Nate Youngquist	(West of Mount Vernon)	Young farmer and owner, Sky Harvest Produce, wholesale grower/distributor of farm products. Member of Skagit Agricultural Advisory Board.