

4-H FOOD CONTESTS

Superintendent: Becky McClellan, 360-293-9667

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR FOOD ACTIVITY CONTESTS

1. Contests are open to members enrolled in a food project.
2. All contests will take place at Fair in the 4-H Building kitchens.
3. Pre-registration is required. Exhibitors showing animals or those having limited time available will be accommodated as much as possible.
4. Activity chosen should reflect the skill level and ability of the exhibitor.
5. Exhibitors should be familiar with the specific rules for their chosen activity, found in the current project materials. WSU Publication EM4733, "4-H Food Activity Guidelines" can be found online at www.4h.wsu.edu or obtained at the Extension Office.
6. Worksheets for the respective contests must be completed in advance and given to the judge before beginning, along with recipe(s) and menu. Teams should prepare one worksheet. Worksheet C1099, 4-H Food Activity Worksheet, can be found online at the above website.
7. Exhibitors will be penalized for using more than the allotted time. Allotted time includes: set up, meal preparation, judge's interview, and clean up.
8. Bread making machines may not be used in any food activity.
9. All food items used in all foods activities must be purchased at a grocery store or other approved food source. No home-grown or home preserved foods may be used in any kitchen activity.
10. The kitchen will be supplied with most equipment needed. Exhibitors may bring any other equipment to complete their food preparation activity. Any equipment brought from home must be re-sanitized before use. Plan to accomplish this within the activity time limit.
11. Exhibitors may use dishes, flatware, and glassware provided in the kitchen, or may bring their own (must re-sanitize it at Fair). Linens and centerpieces for table setting are not provided and should be brought from home. Exhibitors should bring their own aprons, dish cloths and dish towels.
12. Exhibitors will be helped with operating equipment (range, microwave oven).
13. Proper sanitization requires that counter and work areas be pre-sanitized by wiping with a bleach solution. Ask the superintendent or judge for assistance if needed.
14. Participants will do necessary cleanup in the kitchen before leaving, including emptying garbage and sweeping the floor. Bring clean hot pads, dish cloths, and dish towels.
15. Dishes will be washed by hand. Refer to WSU Publication EM4808, Sanitizing Dishes.
16. Alcoholic beverages are not to be used.
17. Exhibitors should have knowledge of the food groups used and nutritional value of the food being served.
18. Participants should demonstrate food and kitchen safety, appropriate preparation skills and knowledge. Refer to WSU Publication EM4733 for specific knowledge requirements for each activity.

DIVISION A: BREAD BAKING ACTIVITY

1. Read the General Guidelines for Foods Activities. Teams not allowed.
2. Exhibitors will prepare yeast or quick bread. Yeast bread activity can be scheduled for up to 3 hours, quick bread activity up to 2 hours. Junior members going on to the State Fair will only be allowed to make a quick bread product with a maximum of 2 hours allowed.
3. The judge and contestant will taste the finished product.
4. A portion of finished product will be put on display; remaining product may be taken home.
