

SKAGIT COUNTY FAIR AIMS & PURPOSES

It is the Goal of Skagit County to produce a Fair in which there is pride and involvement by the people of Skagit County.

Therefore, we the staff of the Skagit County Fairgrounds endeavor to:

- Display products of the agricultural industry of our area.
- Provide wholesome educational and entertainment activities for all people.
- Exhibit arts, crafts and manufacturer's products and show results of skills used for home living.
- Provide opportunities for all county citizens to share their knowledge and skills with other citizens of the County through participation in the Fair.
- Utilize the Fairgrounds facilities for multi-use activities throughout the year.
- Generate revenue to support Fair operations and provide support for expanding and updating the facilities.
- Develop objectives, aims and purposes through short and long range planning. From this planning, establish yearly goals that are measurable with evaluation each year.
- Provide for safe and healthful conditions for people participating in or attending activities on the Fairgrounds and safeguard the Fair properties and exhibits.
- Present a well-balanced and wide variety of exhibits that include displays by people of all ages and representing all Skagit County industries.
- Conform to the rules and regulations as set forth in the Washington State Agricultural Fairs Laws.

SKAGIT COUNTY FAIR

GENERAL RULES & REGULATIONS

- The Skagit County Fair has three main sections for exhibit entry:
 - Open Class – anyone in the public can enter Open Class
 - FFA – must be a member of an FFA Chapter to enter this Department
 - 4-H – must be a member of a 4-H Club to enter this Department
- ALL EXHIBITORS: Please see the Departments and Divisions for specific entry rules.
- ALL EXHIBITORS must register their exhibits online @ www.skagitcounty.net/fair.* All exhibits must be on the fairgrounds on the proper entry day for judging.
 - * Some open class indoor exhibit departments would prefer you not to register online and would like you to register when you bring your entries to the fair. Please read each department's rules for accurate information on your department.
- ALL ANIMALS must be registered with Skagit County Fair by the SECOND FRIDAY OF JULY. Animals registering for the Stock Sale must also complete a signature form. See Stock Sale registration information for form.
- ALL ANIMALS must remain on the Fairgrounds until their designated release time. Exhibitors who remove their animals from the fair before the designated release time may be banned from entering exhibits in the fair the following year. There will be no exceptions to this rule.
- ANIMAL EXHIBITORS are required to follow the Skagit County Fair Veterinary Regulations.
- ALL STATIC (non-animal) exhibits may be picked up at 8 pm Sunday until 9 pm or 11:00 am – 5:30 pm the Monday after the Fair. NO EXHIBITS MAY BE REMOVED FROM THE FAIRGROUNDS PRIOR TO 8 PM SUNDAY. Exhibitors who remove their exhibits from the fair before 8 pm Sunday will not receive premiums and may not be able to exhibit at the Skagit County Fair in the future. There will be no exceptions to this rule. Exhibitor Claim Tickets must be presented to pick up entries. Perishable exhibits will be disposed of at 9 pm Sunday.
- Entries not picked up by 1 pm Tuesday become the property of the Fair and may be discarded.
- No person shall receive a free pass just because they have entered an exhibit. Exhibitors whose entries require re-entry into the fair may purchase a $10.00 wristband, this allows them entry into the Fair to care for their projects. Pass requests are subject to approval by the management.
- The Fair will use every precaution in its power for the preservation of all articles and stock on exhibition during the Fair, but will not be responsible for loss or damage.
- Animals and exhibits are welcome to stay at the Fairgrounds until Monday at the animal/exhibit owner's risk.
- Exhibitors of animals, machinery in motion, and other exhibits liable to occasional accidents, injury, or damage to persons coming in contact herewith shall guard their exhibits in such a way as to protect the public. Such exhibitors shall indemnify the Fair from and against any claims and demands, costs, charges, and expenses, which may be incurred by reason of any accident.

- Should there be any disputes or misunderstandings, which none of the By-Laws, Rules and Regulations will govern, whether in connection with judging or otherwise, they shall be referred to Fair Management whose decision shall be final. Parties filing protests will obtain forms from the Fair Office. All protests must be filed within 8 hours of the incident and a decision will be made within 24 hours of filing. The decision of Management is final.
- FAIR MANAGEMENT RESERVES THE FINAL AND ABSOLUTE RIGHT TO ALTER, INTERPRET, OR CHANGE THE RULES AND REGULATIONS AS MAY BECOME NECESSARY AND TO DETERMINE ALL MATTERS, QUESTIONS, AND DIFFERENCES THAT MAY ARISE IN OR OUT OF AN INCIDENT AT THE FAIR.
