What is a qualified applicant?

A qualified applicant is a person who is eligible to receive a certificate.

Who are the qualified applicants for a birth certificate?

Qualified applicants for a birth certificate are: Self, Spouse/Domestic Partner, Child, Parent, Stepparent, Stepchild, Sibling, Grandparent, Grandchild, Great Grandparent, Legal Guardian, Legal Representative, Authorized Representative, or Government Agency or the Courts (only for official duties).

Are you one of the qualified applicants listed above to the birth certificate you are requesting?

If yes, continue. You will need to provide identity and proof of eligibility documentation.

If you are not one of the listed above, STOP. You will not receive a WA State birth certificate

What is proof of eligibility documentation?

Proof of eligibility documentation are documents that link you to the requested birth certificate.

1. If you are listed on the record and your identity documentation sufficiently links you to the record (i.e. self or parents), your proof of eligibility requirement is met.
2. If you are not listed on the record or your identity documentation does not sufficiently link you to the record, you must provide additional documentation to prove eligibility.

What documents will the Skagit County Public (SCPH) accept to prove eligibility?

SCPH will accept the following documents to prove eligibility:

- Copies of vital records such as certifications of birth, death, marriage, and divorce from this or another jurisdiction that link you to the requested record
- Copies of certified court orders from a court of competent jurisdiction linking you to the record (i.e. legal guardian)
- Document or letter from a government agency or courts stating the certification will be used in the conduct of official duties (for government and court officials only)

View the Proof of Eligibility \(PDF\) for examples of how to prove qualifying relationship.

What identity documentation will SCPH accept?

SCPH will accept a copy of:

- One government issued identity document (must contain photo, full name, and date of birth) that is current or expired less than 60 days; or
- If you do not have a government issued identity document, then at least two alternate documents from the alternate list. The alternate documents must contain matching first and last names and addresses, or in combination contains full name, date of birth, and photograph.

View the list of acceptable identity documentation.

What information is required?

The following information is required as it appears on the birth certificate:

- First, middle, and last name of the subject of the record
- First and last name of all parents listed on the record
- Date of birth (month, date, year)
- City or county where the birth occurred

What if I cannot provide the required documents to prove eligibility, do not have identity documents from the acceptable list, or know the required information?

If you are unable to meet the requirements, you may submit a request for an exception. This process allows the applicant to explain why you are unable to provide the required documentation or information.

What is an Heirloom birth certificate?

The Heirloom birth certificate is a birth certificate signed by the Governor and the State Registrar. For more information on Heirlooms, please visit our website at <https://www.SCPH.wa.gov/LicensesPermitsandCertificates/BirthDeathMarriageandDivorce/OrderCertificates/HeirloomBirthCertificates>.

What address do I put on the order form?

The address you provide on the order form must be the address you are REGISTERED to receive mail at. If that is not an option, put the name of the individual registered at the address and then put "in care of" before your name (Ex. John Doe C/O Jane Doe, 101 Israel Rd SE, Tumwater, WA 98502). If filling in the form by hand, please print clearly to avoid delay in processing.

What form of payment is accepted?

We accept checks, credit cards, debit cards and money orders for requests mailed to SCPH. Make sure your check or money order is made payable to SCPH. For payments by credit or debit card, put your phone number on the application and staff will call you for payment information. Do not send CASH in the mail.
