

JULY 25 THROUGH DECEMBER 31

Hometown Skagit: How Sports Shape Our Community focuses on the accomplishments, spirit, and inspiration of sports figures and teams in the Skagit area. From pioneers in their sports to local sport celebrities to champion teams, Hometown Skagit explores how these people and teams help shape our community through their contributions to current and future generations. This exhibit will also examine how cheering on these people and teams also has an important role to play in shaping our community. Champion teams from schools around the county and prominent sports figures from various sports including baseball, basketball, football, rodeo, snowboarding and many others will be highlighted through the display of sports memorabilia such as trophies, equipment, programs, and photographs.
