Re: Clarification re Fire Flow Exemption in Building Code Update
Date: 06/02/2016

The proposed building code update proposal includes an error in Section 103.3 regarding buildings that may not require fire flow. The text would change the fire flow exemption to limit it to “agricultural storage buildings.” The text should instead read “agricultural building as defined in SCC 14.04.020,” which is not limited to buildings used for storage.
