Shoreline Master Program (SMP) Update Work Session (continued)

Natural Resources Supervisor Betsy Stevenson and Dan Nickel from The Watershed Company reviewed topics from past Shoreline Master Program work sessions. Mr. Nickel then discussed the public participation process and detailed working with the Department of Ecology on the SMP Update. The next public information meeting for the SMP Update will take place on April 8th, with future meetings possible in May and June. Ms. Stevenson and Mr. Nickel also took several questions and comments from the Planning Commissioners.

Director's Update

Planning Director Hal Hart gave an update on the changing conditions in Skagit County and relayed information on current projects. There is also some legislation which is likely to pass in Washington State which will require changes to county-wide planning policies.
