

MOUNT VERNON DAILY HERALD

10/19/55

Ike To Urge Flood Insurance

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—New England's second disastrous flood in three months is likely to spur Congress to its first serious consideration of some form of federal flood insurance.

President Eisenhower assured New England governors by letter from Denver Tuesday that the administration will make specific legislative suggestions next month.