

INSPECT RIVER—Members of the board of the Mount Vernon Chamber of Commerce and county officials inspect the silt choked north fork of the Skagit River this morning. The party was the guest of the Dunlap Towing Co. The men were to be guests at a salmon barbecue this afternoon. The chamber and other county groups are trying to have the river dredged so that barge traffic can get up to Mount Vernon.