

Skagit County Drainage Utility Program

The Drainage Utility Program protects public and private property in unincorporated Skagit County from many drainage threats.

Current rate:

$60

per year
per household.

So far in 2023:

37

drainage complaints addressed.

Since 1996:

1600

drainage complaints
addressed.

~800

site visits performed.

The Drainage Utility team offers information, technical assistance, and potential project funding to Skagit County landowners experiencing drainage concerns.

Drainage Utility helps with

Ditch maintenance

Conveyance

Stormwater

Erosion

Failing culverts

Sediment buildup

Learn more about Skagit County's Drainage Utility Program at SkagitCounty.net/Drainage or by scanning the QR code.

