RULE 9 LAND AND REGISTRATION ACT PETITIONS (RCW 65.12)

(a) Any application for Land Registration under RCW 65.12 shall contain the following notice in the heading:

LAND REGISTRATION ACT APPLICATION. CLERK’S ACTION REQUIRED

(b) On the occasion of a Land Registration Act under RCW 65.12 being filed with the clerk, the clerk will forward said application and accompanying documents to the Presiding Judge. The Presiding Judge will review said documents to ensure that they are complete and in compliance with RCW 65.12. If they are complete and in compliance, the court shall so note on the application and return them to the Clerk for further processing.

(c) No bond shall be required of the county auditor with respect to his or her performance of duties as registrar of titles provided that said auditor is insured against errors and omissions in connection with performance of his or her duties as auditor/registrar of titles in a sum no less than one hundred thousand dollars. In the event the county auditor is not so insured, then, in that event, the county auditor must obtain a bond in a sum no less than one hundred thousand dollars conditioned for the faithful discharge of those duties identified in RCW 65.12.055.

(d) Upon determining that an application for Land Registration forwarded to the Presiding Judge is complete and in compliance with RCW 65.12, the Presiding Judge will appoint an Examiner of Titles as required by RCW 65.12.090. The Examiner of Titles shall be appointed with reference to the specific case for which the Presiding Judge has appointed the examiner. In appointing said examiner, the Presiding Judge shall take into consideration the apparent complexity of the condition of title as revealed by the abstract of title filed with the petition as required by RCW 65.12.085. No bond shall be required of the examiner appointee provided said examiner is insured against malpractice in connection with the performance of duties required as examiner of titles in a sum no less than five hundred thousand dollars. In the event the examiner appointee is not so insured, he or she must obtain a bond in a sum no less than five hundred thousand dollars conditioned on faithful performance of his or her duties as Examiner of Titles. The examiner appointee shall provide proof of such insurance or a copy of said bond prior to commencing his or her duties under the appointment provided for herein.

(e) The costs and compensation of the Examiner of Titles shall be borne by the applicant for land registration. Upon appointment, the examiner appointee shall estimate the anticipated costs and compensation in connection with his or her duties herein based upon an estimate of hours to complete the Examination and the hourly compensation of attorneys of the examiner appointee's level of experience commonly charged in Skagit County. After review and approval by the Presiding Judge, the Court Administrator shall advise the applicant to deposit the estimated amount of anticipated costs and compensation into the registry of the court. The Examiner shall not be required to commence his or her duties as examiner until he or she is notified by the administrator that said funds have been so deposited. The disbursement of said funds to the Examiner shall be made from time to time upon request of the Examiner of Titles, provided that the applicant shall receive notice of the requested disbursement no less than ten days prior to approval by the Presiding Judge. In the event the applicant makes timely objection to the requested disbursement, the Presiding Judge shall promptly convene a hearing with notice to both the applicant and the Examiner to determine whether a disbursement in a sum determined by the court should be ordered.

(f) Entry of Judgments by default may be granted in the manner specified in RCW 65.12.155. If any named defendant responds to the summons, then any party may bring a motion before the civil motions judge for hearing pursuant to RCW 65.12.160. Said motions shall be scheduled on the Court's summary judgment calendar. If, in the determination of the civil motions judge, the matter should be set for a trial or evidentiary hearing, the civil motions judge shall set the matter to an available date on the Court's trial calendar.

(g) The Examiner of Title shall not serve as a referee as permitted under RCW 65.12.160. The Examiner's duties shall be complete and his or her automatic discharge shall occur upon the happening of any one of the following events: 1.) Applicant's failure to deposit the Examiner's anticipated costs and compensation into the registry of the court within thirty days of notice to deposit same; 2) Applicant's failure to notify the court of applicant's decision to proceed further or withdraw his or her application within thirty days of notice of the filing of the Examiner's report as provided in RCW 65.12.110; 3.) The court's entry of a decree of registration.

(h) The Examiner of Titles shall submit his or her final request for reimbursement of costs or compensation within sixty days of his or her discharge. If the funds deposited in the registry of court are inadequate to fully pay the Examiner's approved costs and compensation, the applicant shall deposit enough funds to make up the shortfall into the registry of the court. If any of the funds deposited into the registry of the court to pay the Examiner of Title's costs and compensation remain in the court registry after satisfying the Examiner's final request for reimbursement, said funds shall be refunded to the applicant.

In trial matters the limit for a party's main filing is ten (10) pages double-spaced; supplemental briefs or legal memoranda on subsidiary matters may not exceed three (3) pages double-spaced. Declarations and affidavits in such matters may not exceed five (5) pages double-spaced. The Court may strike pleadings that are longer than the page limit described in this rule upon its own motion.

(3) Filing: Case Numbers. No documents shall be submitted for filing with more than one case number. Where documents require filing under multiple case numbers, attorneys shall submit duplicate originals for each case number cited. Case numbers for each file shall be highlighted by circling the appropriate cause number. Where there are multiple case numbers and no duplicate originals provided, the Clerk shall place the document only in the first case number designated.

(4) Filing: Physical Issues. Single documents with multiple pages shall be stapled together. Multiple documents shall not be stapled together, e.g., do not staple your calendar note to the motion.

Compact discs, digital video discs, audio tapes, thumb drives, and similar devices containing recorded information shall not be attached to documents filed with the court clerk. In order to make such recorded information part of the court's permanent record, it must be transcribed and then filed as a document in paper format. All exhibits filed with the court clerk are subject to the clerk's exhibit retention schedule. If a party wishes for its exhibit to be considered and admitted at a hearing, they shall submit a duplicate copy of the item to Court Administration and all legal parties. The judicial officer hearing the case will then address admission of the item as an exhibit at the hearing. If all parties agree that an exhibit may be reviewed in advance of the hearing, they may provide such notice in submissions to the court.

(2) Motion for Remote Trial. The Court may permit a trial to take place remotely after a hearing prior to the trial date. RULE 40 ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

(a) [Reserved]

(b) Methods

(1) Form of Request. The trial assignment calendar shall be held on each Monday at 9:30 a.m. Notes for this calendar shall be filed and served on all parties at least nine (9) court days before the trial assignment calendar. Counsel should not be present for this calendar but should proceed according to the remainder of this rule. Trial dates shall be assigned by the Court Administrator pursuant to requests made in accordance with CR 40, using the applicable note for trial assignment form on the Superior Court website. [Amended September 1, 2019; amended September 1, 2021; amended September 1, 2022.]

(2) Joinder and Default. Before filing a request for trial assignment, counsel must determine that all joinder issues under CRs 18-20 are resolved. Motions for default under CR 55 must have been heard and resolved before requesting a trial date.

(3) Conflict Dates. Counsel shall file with the clerk of the court, and a copy to Court Administration, a notice of conflict dates at least four (4) court days before the date set for the trial assignment. Conflict dates shall be limited to previously scheduled vacations, trial dates, arbitrations and mediations. Counsel is to include the name of the trial, arbitration or mediation in conflict and the location of the conflict. The form Notice of Conflict Dates may be found under the Forms tab on the Superior Court website. [Amended September 1, 2020; amended September 1, 2022]

(4) Objections to Trial Assignment. The Court Administrator shall set the trial date from the trial assignment calendar. Motions objecting to trial assignment must be noted for a hearing date no later than 14 calendar days of the filing of the Note for Trial Assignment. If the Court finds the objection has merit, the trial date will be stricken. [Amended September 1, 2022]

(5) Pre-assignment of Judge. Parties may move the court for pre-assignment of a judge. The original should be filed, and a copy should be delivered to the Court Administrator. The presiding Judge will then select a Judge for pre-assignment. A letter will then notify counsel that all pretrial motions should be heard by the assigned judge and should be scheduled through Court Administration. This is to assure that the assigned judge is on the appropriate calendar, or if a special set is necessary. If both sides do not agree to a pre-assignment, the matter can be brought on the regular Civil Motions calendar. [Amended March 1, 2013; amended June 1, 2013]

(c) Pre-Trial Conference.

(1) In General. At the time of trial assignment, a pre-trial conference will also be scheduled by Court Administration. Failure to appear at the pre-trial conference will result in the trial date being stricken. Failure of one party to appear at the pre-trial conference may result in imposition of sanctions or any other relief deemed appropriate by the Court. The parties may appear in-person or remotely for the pre-trial conference.

(2) Pre-Trial Conference Summary. At least one court day before the pre-trial conference, the parties must complete and submit the Pretrial Conference Summary form located in the Forms section on the Superior Court webpage. If a party had previously submitted a witness list, it is only required to list any supplemental witnesses and their contact information in this form. [Adopted September 1, 2021]

(3) Purpose of Hearing. A pre-trial conference is a last opportunity before trial for the parties to confirm their understanding of the proceedings, particularly if components of the trial will be happening remotely. Conferences with attorneys representing all parties are expected to be brief, given their prior experience with handling trials. Conferences involving self-represented individuals may involve an explanation of the proceedings and expectations at trial. A pre-trial conference is not an opportunity to address substantive motions, contested motions to continue the trial date, or motions in limine. Parties wishing to address such matters must note them onto a regular motions calendar. [Adopted September 1, 2022]

(d) Confirmation of Civil Trials

(1) All civil jury trials shall be confirmed by noon Thursday the week before the scheduled trial date. All other bench trials, EXCEPT unlawful detainers, shall be confirmed by noon five (5) court days before the scheduled trial date. Counsel shall confirm trials by calling the Superior Court Administrator's Office, (360) 416-1200. If a trial is not confirmed in accordance with this rule, the trial will be stricken. [Amended September 1, 2015; amended September 1, 2016; amended September 1, 2022]

(e) Continuances and Settlement. Attorneys shall immediately notify the Court Administrator if a trial has settled or has been continued and submit an agreed proposed order to ex parte striking both the pre-trial conference and trial date.

(f) Submission of Exhibits, Motions in Limine, Trial Briefs, Depositions, and Proposed Final Orders.

(1) Deadline. The parties shall provide their exhibits, as detailed in (2), motions in limine, trial briefs, original sealed depositions, and proposed final orders to Court Administration by 12:00 p.m. on the court day before trial.

- (2) Exhibits. The parties shall provide two sets of all exhibits (one set of originals and one set of bench copies) in two separate notebooks, packets, or binders. The Court recognizes that exhibits used in rebuttal or for impeachment purposes may be supplemented during trial. In such event, working copies for the Court and the opposing parties shall be made available as practicable.
- (3) Numbering. The exhibits should be numbered by either tabs or in the upper right-hand corner and organized in numerical order. Plaintiff or petitioner's exhibits shall be numbered 1-100. Defendant or respondent's exhibits shall be numbered 101 - 199. In cases with more than two parties or with more voluminous exhibits, the parties shall either work together on numbering of their proposed exhibits or receive such direction from the Court at the Pre-Trial Conference.
- (4) Remote Parties or Witnesses. In cases where one or more parties will appear remotely for trial, the original set of exhibits shall be accompanied by a completed Exhibit Notebook Certification form located in the Forms section on the Superior Court website. All copies of the exhibits shall be accompanied by a copy of the Exhibit Notebook Certification. Where one or more witnesses will appear remotely, exhibits that witness may be expected to refer to during questioning shall be provided by noon the day before each witness's testimony to that witness. Exceptions may be made for exhibits used in rebuttal or for impeachment of that witness, in which case screen sharing or other arrangements may be used to display the exhibits in question to the witness with leave of the Court.

If a party wishes to appear and provide testimony only by audio (either online or telephonically), they must request permission of the court at least three days before the hearing. Appropriate virtual backgrounds that obscure the location of a participant are permitted. [Adopted September 1, 2022]

(5) Presence at Trial Prior to Testimony. Absent pre-approval of the Court, any non-party witnesses, regardless of whether appearing remotely or in-person, may not observe the trial until their testimony is complete and they are released from subpoena.

PART IV. LOCAL CIVIL ARBITRATION RULES (Cite as SCLCAR)

1. SCOPE AND PURPOSE OF RULES

1.1 PURPOSE AND APPLICATION

These local rules, to be cited as Local Civil Arbitration Rules (SCLCAR) are for the purpose of implementing RCW 7.06 and supplementing Superior Court Civil Arbitration Rules adopted by the Supreme Court. The Local Civil Arbitration Rules as supplemented by these local rules are not designed to address every question which may arise during the arbitration process, and the rules give considerable discretion to the arbitrator. The arbitrator should not hesitate to exercise that discretion. Arbitration proceedings should be informal and expeditious, consistent with the purpose of relevant statutes and rules. [Amended September 1, 2020]

1.2 MATTERS SUBJECT TO ARBITRATION

Any civil action filed in the Skagit County Superior Court, other than an appeal from a Court of Limited Jurisdiction, is subject to mandatory arbitration if the sole relief sought is a money judgment in which no party asserts a claim in excess of $100,000, exclusive of attorney fees, interest and costs, or in which all parties for purposes of arbitration waive claims in excess of $100,000, exclusive of attorneys' fees, interests and costs. Additionally, parties may stipulate to the arbitration of any matter in controversy not subject to mandatory arbitration.

[Adopted December 12, 1990, amended September 1, 2018]

2. TRANSFER TO ARBITRATION AND ASSIGNMENT OF ARBITRATOR

2.1 TRANSFER TO ARBITRATION

(a) Time of Transfer

In every civil case, when any party has determined that the case is ready for trial and that the case is subject to arbitration, either mandatory or by stipulation, such party shall pay the associated fee and file a Demand for Arbitration setting the matter on the Motion Calendar not earlier than nine court days from the date such demand is filed.

[Amended September 1, 2007; amended September 1, 2022]

(b) Order Transferring Cause to Arbitration. Cases shall be transferred to arbitration only by Court Order. Such order may be secured:

(1) At the hearing scheduled pursuant to 2.1(a) above.

(2) By stipulation and order agreed to by all parties.

(c) Response to Demand for Arbitration. Any party disagreeing with a Demand for Arbitration shall serve and file a response to demand for arbitration not less than two (2) court days prior to the date the demand is noted for hearing. In the absence of such response, the Demand for Arbitration shall be granted, and an order presented transferring the cause to arbitration. Responses asserting that the cause is not subject to arbitration shall be heard on the date noted for hearing of the Demand for Arbitration.

[Amended September 10, 1991; amended September 1, 2022]

2.3 ASSIGNMENT OF ARBITRATOR

(a) Generally; Stipulations

Parties may stipulate to appointment of any person, including non-attorneys, as arbitrator. Such stipulation shall be filed at or before the hearing on the demand for arbitration, or, in case of a stipulated order for arbitration, with said stipulated order. In the absence of a stipulated choice of arbitrator, a list of five arbitrators shall be submitted to the parties by the Director of Arbitration in cases involving two parties. In cases involving more than two parties, two additional names shall be submitted for each additional party involved in the cause.

Within seven (7) calendar days thereafter each party shall nominate one or two arbitrators, and shall strike one or two arbitrators on the list. The Director of Arbitration shall appoint an arbitrator from among those nominated by all parties, or, if no one has been nominated by all parties, from among those not stricken by any party. Any party unwilling to submit their cause to the arbitrator so designated must file, within five (5) days of the appointment by the Director, a request for an appointment by the Court. Said request shall be filed with the Director and acted upon by the Court without further hearing.

[Adopted December 12, 1990; amended September 1, 2022]

3. ARBITRATORS

3.1 QUALIFICATIONS [Adopted July 1, 1996; rescinded September 1, 2010]

4. PROCEDURES AFTER ASSIGNMENT [Reserved]

5. HEARING

5.1 NOTICE OF HEARING

An arbitration hearing may be scheduled at any reasonable time and place chosen by the Arbitrator, after giving due consideration to the time preferences and conflicts indicated by the parties. Reasonable notice of the hearing and of any continuances shall be given to all parties and to the Director. Hearings should be scheduled not sooner than 21 days nor later than 75 days from the time of appointment and assignment of the cause to the Arbitrator. The arbitrator may grant a continuance without court order and

[Adopted December 12, 1990; amended effective September 1, 2004; amended September 1, 2008; amended September 1, 2009; amended September 1, 2022]

PART V. LOCAL SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS RULES (Cite as SCLSPR)

94.04.1 PARENTING SEMINARS

(a) Applicable Cases. This rule shall apply to all cases filed after September 1, 2001, under Chapter 26.09, Ch. 26.10, or Ch. 26.26 RCW which require a parenting plan for minor children; including dissolutions, legal separations, major modifications, and paternity actions in which paternity has been established. [Amended September 1, 2022]

(b) Mandatory Attendance. In all cases governed by this rule, all parties shall complete an approved parenting seminar. Standards for parenting seminars shall be established by the Court and providers shall be approved by the Court. An approved list of providers will be available through Court Administration. [Amended September 1, 2011]

(c) Timing. Parties required by this rule to participate in a parenting seminar shall complete an approved parenting seminar within 90 days after service of the petition or motion initiating the action which is subject to this rule. In the case of paternity actions initiated by the prosecuting attorney's office, the parenting seminar shall be required only when paternity is established or acknowledged and a parenting plan is requested.

(d) Fees. Each party attending a seminar shall pay a fee charged by the approved provider and sanctioned by the court. The court may waive the fee for indigent parties.

(e) Special Consideration/Waiver.

- (1) In no case shall opposing parties be required to attend a seminar together.
- (2) Upon a showing of domestic violence or abuse which would not require mutual decision-making, pursuant to RCW 26.09.191, or that a parent's attendance at a seminar is not in the children's best interest, pursuant to Ch. 26.12 RCW, the Court shall either:
 - (A) waive the requirement of completion of the seminar; or
 - (B) allow participation in an alternative voluntary parenting seminar for battered spouses.
- (3) The Court may waive the seminar requirement for good cause shown.

(f) Failure to Comply. Willful refusal to participate in a parenting seminar or willful delay in completion of a parenting seminar by any party may constitute contempt of court and result in sanctions, including, but not limited to, imposition of monetary terms, striking of pleadings, or denial of affirmative relief to a party not in compliance with this rule. Non-participation, or default, by one party does not excuse participation by the other party. Agreement of the parties to enter agreed final orders does not excuse participation by either party.

[Effective September 1, 2001; amended September 1, 2009; amended September 1, 2021]

94.04.2 FILINGS IN FAMILY LAW CASES

(a) Application of Rule. This rule shall apply to all cases filed after September 1, 2003:

- (1) All family law petitions seeking dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity;
- (2) Actions brought by parties to non-marital personal relationships involving parenting or distribution of assets/liabilities; and
- (3) Actions to modify previously entered parenting plan or child support final orders.

(b) Court's Automatic Temporary Order. Upon the filing of a Summons and Petition in any of the actions specified in Sections (a)(1) and (2) above, the court on its own motion shall automatically issue a Temporary Order that includes the following provisions:

- (1) The parties shall be restrained from transferring, removing, encumbering, concealing or in any way disposing of any property except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life or as agreed in writing by the parties. Each party shall notify the other party of any extraordinary expenditure made after the order is issued.
- (2) The parties shall be restrained from assigning, transferring, borrowing, lapsing, surrendering or changing entitlement of any insurance policies of either or both parties whether medical, health, life or auto insurance, except as agreed in writing by the parties.

- (3) Each party shall be immediately responsible for his or her own future debts whether incurred by credit card or loan, security interest or mortgage, except as agreed in writing by the parties.
- (4) Both parties shall have access to all tax, financial, legal and household records. Reasonable access to records shall not be denied.
- (5) For those actions in which children are involved:
 - (i) Each parent shall be restrained from changing the residence of the child(ren) until further court order, except as agreed in writing by the parties. Subsequent orders regarding parenting issues supercede previously issued orders to the extent the orders may be inconsistent.
 - (ii) Each parent shall insure that the child(ren) not be exposed to negative comments about the other parent in the presence of the child(ren).

(c) Mediation in Contested Cases. Mediation shall apply to all cases filed after January 1, 2004. Except as provided in Section (d) below, in all cases specified in Section (a) having unresolved issues (except child support issues), both parties shall in good faith engage in mediation with a court-approved mediator in an effort to resolve the case. The parties may either agree to a mediator from the court approved list or the mediator will be determined by use of a strike list. Either party may seek a court apportionment of the cost of mediation. In cases where parenting issues exist, the mediation shall not occur until both parties have completed the parenting seminar described in SCLSPR 94.04.1. A certificate of completion signed by the mediator shall be filed with the clerk of the court prior to trial.

[Amended September 1, 2005]

(d) When Mediation is not Required. Mediation shall be required as provided in Section (c) except in the following cases:

- (1) For good cause shown upon motion and approval by the court.
- (2) Where a domestic violence restraining order or protection order (excluding ex-parte orders) involving the parties has been entered by a court at any time within the previous 12 months.
- (3) Where a domestic violence no contact order exists pursuant to RCW 10.99.
- (4) Where the court upon motion finds that domestic abuse has occurred between the parties and that such abuse would interfere with arm's-length mediation.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may by motion seek a court order requiring mandatory mediation in a case where it would not be required as set forth in (d)(2), (d)(3) or (d)(4) above if the moving party believes that the parties would be able to mediate their dispute at arm's-length under the particular circumstances of the case.

(e) Failure to Comply. A party's compliance with the provisions of this rule may be enforced upon Motion and Order to Show Cause. Unless compliance is waived by the court for good cause shown, the court may order appropriate sanctions including costs, attorney's fees, and adoption of the complying party's proposal.

(f) Registry Administration. The Court Administrator shall maintain and administer the family law mediator registry. The application form and requirements may be obtained from the Court Administrator's office.

(g) Certificate of Completion. Prior to a final dissolution hearing or the trial date, mediation must be completed. Failure to complete mediation, prior to the trial date, will result in the trial being stricken. A certification of completion signed by the mediator shall be filed with the clerk. [Effective September 1, 2005; amended April 2, 2006]

(h) Page Limitation. Absent prior authorization from the Court, the entirety of all declarations and affidavits from the parties and any non-expert witness in support of motions shall be limited to a sum total of fifteen (15) pages. The entirety of all declarations and affidavits submitted in response to motions shall be limited to a sum of fifteen (15) pages. The entirety of all declarations and affidavits submitted in reply shall be limited to a sum total of five (5) pages.

All declarations and affidavits must be legibly hand printed or typed in at least twelve (12) point type, and 1½ space format. All pages, including declarations and affidavits shall be sequentially numbered.

(1) Exhibits. Exhibits that consist of declarations or affidavits of parties or witnesses shall count towards the above page limit. All other exhibits attached to a declaration or affidavits shall not be counted toward the page limit.

(2) Electronic Exchanges. If the declarations or affidavits quote or reference electronic exchanges (e-mails, text messages, etc...), the source and date of the exchange shall be included. The full version of the electronic communication may be attached as an exhibit for context only and will not count against the page limit if labeled as such for that limited purpose. If the text or email exchange is not quoted or referenced in the declarations, the messages will not be read and will be stricken.

(3) Financial Declarations. Financial declarations and financial documents do not count toward the page limit.

(4) Expert Reports and Evaluations. Declarations, affidavits, and reports from Family Court Investigation, guardians ad litem, police reports, substance use evaluations, psychological evaluations and other expert witnesses do not count toward the page limitation.

(5) Children's Statements. Declarations by minors or children of the parties are strongly disfavored.

(6) Parenting Plans. All motions requesting entry of a parenting plan, residential schedule or other order regarding child placement, shall be accompanied by a proposed parenting plan and declaration in support of parenting plan. The proposed parenting plan or other proposed orders shall not count toward the page limit.

(7) Financial Requests. Motions requesting child support must be accompanied by child support worksheets. Motions requesting child support or maintenance shall be accompanied by a financial declaration, proof of income of the parties including the party's most recent pay or income information and tax returns with all attachments. Financial records required in this section shall not count toward the page limits.

(8) Prior Authorization. Parties requesting expansion of the page limits set forth above must have prior Court approval before exceeding those limits. This shall be accomplished by filing a written request that explains with specificity the reason why the page limitations need to be exceeded and how many additional pages are requested to be submitted. This request may be made on a regularly scheduled domestic motions calendar or ex parte, with at least one court day's advance notice to all legal parties, prior to presentation of the request.

(9) Judge's Copies. Judge's copies of pertinent filings are required for documents filed within four (4) court days of the hearing addressed in said filings. Judge's copies of all affidavits, declarations, briefs, and legal memoranda meeting these criteria shall be delivered to Court Administration. The date and time of the scheduled hearing shall be listed on the upper right corner of the first page. Other than filings related to pre-assigned cases or special set hearings, Court Administration will not accept judge's copies for documents filed more than four court days before the motion or trial in question

(10) Sanctions. Failure to comply with this rule likely will result in sanctions that may include, but are not limited to, striking over limit pleadings, refusal to consider the over-length materials, continuing the hearing, award of attorney's fees or imposition of financial sanctions.

[Amended September 1, 2021]

(i) Oral Argument in Domestic Motions. Oral argument shall be limited to five (5) minutes per side for all domestic motions. The Court may, in its own discretion, increase or reduce the time for oral argument. All oral argument shall be limited to matters noted for that day's motion and contained in the record. Any party addressing the court shall either appear in person or remotely with clear audio and video enabled. Testimony, if authorized, shall take place in-person absent pre-approval from the Court. [Amended September 1, 2021]

(j) Final Dissolution Hearings. Prior to scheduling the final dissolution hearing or trial, pro se litigants shall meet with the Courthouse Facilitator. [Amended September 1, 2012; amended November 1, 2013]

(k) Final Papers in Uncontested Dissolution Matters. Final papers in uncontested dissolution matters may be presented ex parte if accompanied by an affidavit of one of the parties setting forth jurisdictional facts and signed by at least one attorney or party. Final papers in pro se dissolution matters must be set on the designated agreed dissolution calendar with nine (9) court days' notice after being reviewed the Courthouse Facilitator and may be presented without appearance required if accompanied by an affidavit of one of the parties setting forth jurisdictional facts and signed by the family law facilitator and one or both parties before a Notary Public. The courthouse facilitator's fee may be waived if the litigant qualifies under GR 34. Any noted agreed dissolution that is missing orders or signatures on orders at the time of hearing shall be stricken and may be re-noted upon receipt of the necessary items.

[Adopted September 1, 2012; amended September 1, 2019; amended September 1, 2021]

(l) Review of all Final Pleadings. Pro se litigants, married or unmarried, are required to meet with the Courthouse Facilitator on all final decrees, final orders and accompanying findings of fact and conclusions of law, parenting plans, orders of child support, and child support worksheets for family law cases involving children. The Courthouse Facilitator must review the documents for form and completeness prior to presentation to a judicial officer at a hearing or trial. The courthouse facilitator's fee may be waived if the litigant qualifies under GR 34. [Adopted September 1, 2015; amended September 1, 2021]

(m) Arbitration. Arbitrations conducted pursuant to 26.14 RCW shall follow that chapter of the RCWs, the Superior Court Civil Arbitration Rules (SCCAR), and the Local Civil Arbitration Rules (SCLCAR).

- (1) Court Orders. As with civil arbitration matters, Family Law Arbitrations shall be commenced by court order. Confirmation of the arbitration award, as with other orders signed by the court related to Family Law Arbitrations, may be signed by either a judge or a court commissioner.
- (2) Exceptions. The following exceptions to the Local Civil Arbitrations Rules apply, in addition to those enumerated in 26.14 RCW.
 - (i) Strike List. In the absence of a stipulation to an arbitrator, SCLCAR 2.3(a) is amended for Family Law Arbitrations in that the Director of Arbitration shall submit a list of three arbitrators to the parties. For purposes of this rule, a guardian ad litem is not a party. In cases involving more than two parties, one additional name shall be submitted for each additional party involved in the cause. Within seven calendar days thereafter, each party shall nominate one or two arbitrators from the list and shall strike one arbitrator on the list.

- (ii) Qualification of Arbitrator. Unless stipulated by the parties, an arbitrator must meet the minimum requirements listed in RCW 26.14.070.
- (iii) Conflicts with 26.14 RCW. Where the Superior Court Civil Arbitration Rules and/or the Local Civil Arbitration Rules conflict with the provisions in 26.14 RCW, the RCWs shall prevail.

[Adopted September 1, 2024]

94.04.3 JUDICIAL INFORMATION SYSTEM BACKGROUND CHECKS

Prior to presenting a final parenting plan to the court, the party or parties presenting the final parenting plan shall submit a completed judicial information service (JIS) background check form to Skagit County Superior Court Administration. This form is located on the Superior Court webpage under the Forms section. Such request must be submitted no less than three days prior to the date of presentation of the final parenting plan and shall include the hearing date of the order presentation.

[Adopted March 2008; amended September 1, 2009; amended September 1, 2021; amended September 1, 2022; amended September 1, 2023]

94.04.4 FAMILY LAW TRIAL REQUEST AND CONFIRMATION, AND PRE-TRIAL PROCEDURES

(d) Family Law Trial Request.

(1) Trial Assignment. The trial assignment calendar shall be held on each Monday at 9:30 a.m. Notes for this calendar shall be filed and served on all parties, including the guardian ad litem if one has been appointed, at least nine (9) court days before the trial assignment calendar. Parties should not be present for this calendar but should proceed according to the remainder of this rule. Trial dates shall be assigned by the Court Administrator pursuant to requests made in accordance with CR 40.

(i) Certification. Parties submitting a request for a family law trial shall certify that discovery has been completed by both parties and that no outstanding discovery remains; the guardian ad litem report, if applicable, has been completed and filed; expert evaluations, if applicable, have been completed and filed, and the parent noting the case for trial has completed the parenting seminar. A note for trial assignment that fails to include the required certifications will not be assigned a trial date.

(ii) Parenting Seminar Required. A parenting seminar under SCLSPR 94.04.1 must be completed in cases involving minor children before requesting a trial date.

(iii) Informal Family Law Trials. When all parties have agreed in writing to hold an Informal Family Law Trial (IFLT), they shall indicate this agreement and their request to conduct an IFLT on their note for trial assignment. If trial is set for a traditional trial and the parties later agree to hold the case as an IFLT, they shall promptly notify Court Administration of their agreement to conduct an IFLT in addition to filing required forms selecting the IFLT process. [Adopted September 1, 2023]

(2) Mandatory Mediation on Domestic Matters. Certification of completed mediation must be filed prior to trial or the matter is subject to being stricken by the Court. See SCLSPR 94.04.2(c)-(g).

(3) Conflict Dates. The parties shall file with the clerk of the court a notice of conflict dates at least four (4) court days before the date set for the trial assignment. A trial date will be assigned even if all parties have not submitted conflicts. Conflict dates shall be limited to previously scheduled vacations, trial dates, arbitrations and mediations. If counsel is involved, counsel is to include the name of the trial, arbitration or mediation in conflict and the location of the conflict. The form Notice of Conflict Dates is located on the Superior Court webpage under the Forms section.

(4) Objections to Trial Assignment. The Court Administrator shall set the trial date from the trial assignment calendar. Motions objecting to trial assignment must be noted for a hearing date no later than 14 calendar days after the filing of the Note for Trial Assignment. If the Court finds the objection has merit, the trial date will be stricken. [Amended September 1, 2022]

(5) Continuances and Settlement. Parties shall immediately notify the Court Administrator if a trial has settled or has been continued and submit an agreed order ex parte striking both the pre-trial conference and trial date.

(6) Informal Family Law Trials. The Informal Family Law Trial (IFLT) process detailed in GR 40 shall be followed by the court only upon agreement of the parties and as deemed appropriate by the Court.

(i) Signed Agreement of Both Parties. Each party agreeing to an IFLT shall submit their written agreement using the form provided with GR 40. Written notice of each party's agreement to proceed with an IFLT shall be submitted either a) prior to filing a note for trial assignment, b) along with the note for trial assignment, or c) at least 30 days prior to trial along with separate notice provided to Court Administration.

(ii) Verbal Agreement. The Court may also order the case to proceed as an IFLT if it determines at trial or other hearings after discussion on the record with one or more parties that they wish to proceed with an IFLT and the Court determines that all parties are in agreement with conducting an IFLT instead of a traditional trial.

(iii) Objection to IFLT. If any party withdraws their agreement or otherwise objects to an IFLT, the case shall instead proceed to a traditional trial. If a case is pending trial assignment or has already been assigned a trial date, the party wishing to withdraw agreement to an IFLT shall promptly notify Court Administration in addition to notifying other parties and filing documents with the Clerk indicating their position.

(iv) Exhibits. Each party is responsible for providing their own exhibits, including expert reports and declarations of witnesses.

(v) Guardians ad Litem (GALs). When agreeing to an IFLT on the standard form, a request for a guardian ad litem or other expert evaluator to testify does not create an entitlement for appointment of that expert or their testimony at trial. Motions to appoint a GAL must be addressed on the regular domestic motions dockets well before trial. [Adopted September 1, 2023]

(e) Pre-Trial Conference

(1) In General. At the time of trial assignment, a pre-trial conference will also be scheduled by Court Administration. Failure to appear at the pre-trial conference will result in the trial date being stricken. Failure of one party to appear at the pre-trial conference may result in imposition of sanctions or any other relief deemed appropriate by the Court. The parties may appear in-person or remotely for the pre-trial conference.

(2) Pre-Trial Conference Summary. At least one court day before the pre-trial conference, the parties must complete and submit a Pre-Trial Conference Summary form which is located on the Superior Court webpage under the Forms section. If a party had previously submitted a witness list, it is only required to list any supplemental witnesses and their contact information in this form.

(3) [Rescinded September 1, 2022]

(f) Submission of Exhibits, Motions in Limine, Trial Briefs, Depositions, and Proposed Final Orders.

(1) Deadline. The parties shall provide their exhibits, as detailed in (2), motions in limine, trial briefs, original sealed depositions, and proposed final orders to Court Administration by 12:00 p.m. on the court day before trial.

(2) Exhibits. The parties shall provide two sets of all exhibits (one set of originals and one set of bench copies) in two separate notebooks, packets, or binders. The Court recognizes that exhibits used in rebuttal or for impeachment purposes may be supplemented during trial. In such event, working copies for the Court and the opposing parties and guardian ad litem, if one has been appointed, shall be made available as practicable.

(3) Numbering. The exhibits should be numbered by either tabs or in the upper right-hand corner and organized in numerical order. Plaintiff or petitioner's exhibits shall be numbered 1-100. Defendant or respondent's exhibits shall be numbered 101 - 199. In cases with more than two parties or with more voluminous exhibits, the parties shall either work together on numbering of their proposed exhibits or receive such direction from the Court at the Pre-Trial Conference.

(4) Remote Parties or Witnesses. After a remote trial has been approved by the Court under SCLCR 39, in cases where one or more parties will appear remotely for trial, the original set of exhibits shall be accompanied by a completed Exhibit Notebook Certification, located on the Superior Court webpage under the Forms section. All copies of the certification shall be accompanied by a copy of the Exhibit Notebook Certification. Where one or more witnesses will appear remotely, exhibits that witness may be expected to refer to during questioning shall be provided by noon the day before each witness's testimony to that witness. Exceptions may be made for exhibits used in rebuttal or for impeachment of that witness, in which case screen sharing or other arrangements may be used to display the exhibits in question to the witness with leave of the Court. [Amended September 1, 2023]

(g) Confirmation of Family Law Trials. All family law trials shall be confirmed by noon five (5) court days before the scheduled trial date. Parties shall confirm trials by calling the Superior Court Administrator's Office (360) 416-1200 and notify the other legal parties the trial has been confirmed. If a trial is not confirmed in accordance with this rule, the trial will be stricken.

[Adopted September 1, 2009; amended September 1, 2016; amended September 1, 2021; amended September 1, 2022]

94.04.5 EVIDENCE AND EXHIBITS IN FAMILY LAW: SPECIAL PROVISIONS

(a) Appraisals of Automobiles and Boats. In addition to individual appraisals of automobiles, trucks, and boats, the Court will give judicial recognition to Kelly Blue Book, NADA, or other recognized internet appraisal services on all automobiles, trucks, and boats. The appraisal should be for fair market retail value in the local area and be consistent with the description of the item being appraised.

(b) Exhibits. When a documentary exhibit is used at trial during witness examination and reference to the contents of the exhibit is necessary to understand the issues, the party shall provide extra copies of the exhibit to opposing counsel and the court.

[Adopted September 1, 2009]

96.02 NAME CHANGES

(a) In General. Actions commenced solely for the purposes of name changes may be heard in Superior Court if made pursuant to RCW 4.24.130(5)(a).

(b) Adults. Adults petitioning for their own name change may petition on the ex parte calendar by appearing in person or may note their petition for hearing on the Civil Motions calendar. An adult petitioning for a name change shall be expected to show photo identification to confirm their current legal name prior to entry of an order absent a finding of good cause from the court.

(c) Minors. Name change petitions for minors may only be heard on the ex parte calendar if all parents and/or legal guardians and the minor are present for the hearing and in agreement with the name change. If not, petitions to change the name of a minor shall be noted onto the Civil Motions calendar and will not be heard ex parte. The petitioner shall provide the following or an explanation of why the following are not available:

(1) The Minor's Position. If the petitioner is not the minor, information shall be provided about the minor's position with respect to the requested name change.

(2) Position of Parents/Legal Guardians. Information about the position of all parents and legal guardians with respect to the name change, or why such positions have not been requested.

(3) Identification Documents.

(A) Minor Petitioner. If the minor petitions for their own name change, a form of photo identification (which may include identification from a school if other forms of identification are unavailable) shall be provided at the hearing.

(B) Adult Petitioner(s). If someone other than the minor petitions for a name change, they shall present documentation, as available, to demonstrate their relationship to the minor. The adult Petitioner shall also disclose and provide copies, as available, of any protection orders or no-contact orders, parenting plans, guardianship orders, and dependency-related orders related to them and the child.

(C) Copies. Originals or certified copies of official identification documents may be provided at the hearing and not filed with the court until after the hearing. The court shall make a copy of the identification documents provided and file those copies under seal if the name change is granted.

(d) Public Access. Pursuant to RCW 4.24.130(5)(d), name change petitions and supporting documents shall not be accessible to the public unless otherwise ordered by the court.

- 6.4 A guardian ad litem who ceases to be on the registry and who still has active or incomplete cases shall immediately report this circumstance to the Court Administrator. The Court shall not reassign such cases, unless the guardian ad litem's motion to withdraw from the case is heard with notice to all parties and the guardian ad litem is permitted to withdraw from the case. In such instances the Committee shall advise the complainant that the complaint may only be addressed in the context of the case at bar, either by seeking the removal of the guardian ad litem or by contesting the information or recommendation contained in the guardian ad litem's report or testimony. In such cases the Committee and its members shall perform its role in such a manner as to assure that the trial judge remains uninformed as to the complaint; or
 - (b) Make a finding that the complaint has no merit on its face and decline to review the complaint and so inform the complainant; or

- 7.5 Upon receipt of a written response to a complaint from the guardian ad litem, the Committee shall make a finding as to each of the issues delineated in the Committee's letter to the guardian ad litem. Such findings shall state that either there is no merit to the issue based upon the guardian ad litem's response or that there is merit to the issue.
- 7.6 The Committee shall have the authority to issue a written admonishment, a written reprimand, refer the guardian ad litem to additional training, or recommend to the Presiding Judge that the court suspend or remove the guardian ad litem from the registry. In considering a response, the Committee shall take into consideration any prior complaints that resulted in an admonishment, reprimand, referral to training, or suspension or removal from a registry. If a guardian ad litem is listed on more than one registry, the suspension or removal may apply to each registry the guardian ad litem is listed on, at the discretion of the Committee.
- 7.7 The complainant and the guardian ad litem shall be notified in writing of the Committee's decision following receipt of the guardian ad litem's response.
- 7.8 Complaints shall be resolved within twenty-five (25) days of the date of receipt of the written complaint if a case is pending.
