Your landlord is asking you to take part in the Eviction Resolution Pilot Program. ⚠ Do not wait. You can get help.

What is the Eviction Resolution Program (ERPP)?

Your county’s Superior Court uses this program. ERPP requires landlords to try to reach agreements with tenants about unpaid rent before they can ask for eviction in court. You may be eligible for rent assistance and legal help through the ERPP.

If you participate in the ERPP, your landlord must work with you and a specialist from your local Dispute Resolution Center (DRC). If that solves the problem, great! If not, the DRC will offer free mediation. Mediation is voluntary – it only happens if both sides agree to do it.

You have a right to negotiate a payment plan that works for you.

Why should I participate?

If you get this notice and do not respond or try to reach an agreement, your landlord may file for eviction in court. You may qualify for help from a free lawyer (see Appendix C).

- Rent assistance
- Free mediation
- Free legal help

What is mediation? It is when a trained person (a mediator) helps you solve a problem or reach an agreement with someone else. You can ask for mediation at your local Dispute Resolution Center. Mediators are impartial and help all participants reach resolution.
