

Instructions: How to Hold Someone in Contempt of a Court Order

Use this outline if you have a Child Support Order, Parenting Plan, Restraining Order or Maintenance Order signed by a Judge or Commissioner and the other party is not complying with that order. There is no filing fee for bringing a Contempt action if the original order that is being violated was entered in Skagit County Superior Court.

1. Obtain the forms listed in this outline. The Skagit County Superior Court Clerk sells a packet for Contempt which includes the required state and local forms. You may also download the forms for free at www.courts.wa.gov/forms . Skagit County Local Court Rules and local forms are available for purchase at the Clerk's Office or can be downloaded at www.skagitcounty.net (see links to Superior Court).
2. If you need assistance with forms or procedures, the Court Facilitator can review forms you have prepared yourself, answer questions, or help you with procedures. The Facilitator cannot give legal advice and does not represent you. The Facilitator may also assist the other party in your case. You may need more than one appointment. There is a $20 fee per 30 minute appointment. Call for an appointment: (360) 416-1290.
3. Fill out a Motion for Contempt Hearing (FL All Family 165). Your caption and case number should be the same as your original case (in other words if you were the "Respondent" in the original case you are still the "Respondent" on your contempt paperwork and if you were the "Petitioner" in the original case then you are still the "Petitioner"). In the Contempt action, you are also the "requesting party".

In your Motion, explain in detail what type of order is being violated and how that order is being violated. Include the date that the order was entered and include a copy of the order if possible. If you are claiming that money is not being paid to you as ordered, then describe in detail the dates of the missed payments and the amount owed. If you are claiming that visitation is not occurring as ordered, then detail the specific dates and circumstances of each incident. Also, explain what you want to the court to give you as a remedy for the violation. If you have additional evidence, you can attach it to your Motion and if you have other people who have relevant information on the contempt issue, then have each of those people fill out a Declaration (FL All Family 135). Make two copies of your Motion and any Declarations.

4. Fill in the caption only of the Order to Go to Court for Contempt Hearing (Order to Show Cause)(FL All Family 166) and sign that document.
5. Turn in your Motion, Order to Go to Court for Contempt Hearing and any Declarations to the Clerk's office between 8:30am and 12:00pm and let them know you are appearing on the Ex Parte Calendar. At 1:15pm go to the Courtroom where the Ex Parte Calendar is being heard and wait for your case to be called. The Judge or Commissioner may ask you some questions before deciding whether to sign your Order to Go to Court for Contempt Hearing, which sets a hearing on the contempt action.

6. If the Judge/Commissioner signs your Order to Go to Court for Contempt Hearing, then get two copies of that Order and have the other party in your case personally served with your Motion, any Declarations, and the Order to Go to Court for Contempt Hearing. You cannot serve the documents yourself. Have someone over 18 serve the copies to the other party by handing them to the other party. Have the person who serves the documents fill out and sign a Proof of Personal Service (FL All Family 101). Make sure that all the documents that were served are listed on the Proof of Personal Service and that the date, time and place of service are filled in. Make a copy of the Proof of Personal Service and file the original in the Clerk's Office. Note that local court rules require that the other party have 9-court day notice of the hearing.
7. Appear at the hearing via zoom or telephonically. At least two days prior to hearing provide a Contempt Hearing Order (FL All Family 167) to court administration. At the hearing, the Judge/Commissioner will decide whether or not the other party is in contempt and what remedy to award. The Court can also choose to set a review hearing. If the other party did not appear in Court, then you will be responsible for having the other party served with a copy of the Contempt Hearing Order.

This list of instructions is not a substitute for legal advice. Before starting any legal action, it is always wise to consult an attorney regarding your rights and responsibilities. Many attorneys offer consultations. Your specific situation may require additional forms and procedures, which may not be listed on this outline. The Family Law Facilitator and the Clerk's Office cannot give legal advice. Only an attorney can give legal advice.
