Disaster Assistance Centers		www.skagitcounty.net/flood	Skagit County is planning another round of Disaster Assistance Centers, tentatively scheduled for the evenings of 1/7 and 1/8 in Burlington and Concrete as centralized locations. These centers will include state and local assistance resources. Please stay tuned for more details.
Financial and Other Assistance	Salvation Army 833-719-4981	https://governor.wa.gov/news/2026/applications-open-25m-washington-state-disaster-assistance	Washington State Disaster Assistance Governor Bob Ferguson is urging people whose homes were damaged December's historic flooding to apply for $2.5 million in state assistance to help with their immediate needs. Those who suffered damage during the storm are encouraged to submit an Unmet Needs Assessment Form. Impacted individuals should visit SAHelp.org and enter their zip code to start the process. After filling out the form, case managers will determine eligibility for Household Needs Grants, which help cover costs associated with recovery to include short-term housing, small home repairs, and food replacement.
